

Are you Black or African Canadian?

Do you believe your race is the reason you were:

Fired from your job

Evicted from your home

Stopped and/or questioned by police

Suspended and/or expelled from school

Contacted by or involved with a children's aid society

Call Legal Aid Ontario at 1-833-374-8904 or 416-649-2540. Depending on your legal issue, we may connect you with one or more of the following:

- Human Rights Legal Support Centre
- Client and Lawyer Service Centre
- Community or specialty legal clinic
- TAIBU/Rexdale Community Health Centre or Somali Centre for Family Services
- Lawyer

We also encourage you to call LAO if you are part of an Africentric or Black-focused community organization that wants support to:

Intervene in a legal case, the outcome of which may have a broad impact on the Black community

Deliver public legal education on an issue that impacts members of the Black community

If you have a legal issue that you believe has to do with anti-Black racism, call us at 1-833-374-8904 or 416-649-2540 from Monday to Friday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

You may also qualify for:

Help from LAO to pay for a lawyer to represent you in your criminal, family, or immigration and refugee matter

Representation in court by a legal aid lawyer

Legal services from a legal clinic in your community
